Ariel's Role in Integrated Energy Therapy with Stevan J. Thayer

From the channeling of AA Ariel through Stevan Thayer.

When asked about her purpose, she said, Our purpose is to bring about a state of being that is your natural state. This is a divine state devoid of the human state of fear. A state filled with the divinity you call grace. It is the state of fullness, richness, and connectedness to the divine. It is the optimal state for perfect health. As you connect to others, extending this gift of divinity, you will be like an earth angel, conveying the message of divine grace and divine healing through you, from person to person.

AA Ariel's purpose of connecting with you includes helping you to discover and live your soul's mission. Your mission is not only perfect for your ongoing spiritual growth and development, but the earthly actions fit perfectly in the overall Divine plan for humankind. This is not a requirement but rather an opportunity for you. Given the expanding spiritual energies in this world, there is no better time for you to succeed in this mission.

Your heart's desires, visions, longing, and dreams are not just casual feelings but are solid and important messages that your spirit, your divine inner soul, sends you. Pay attention. Are you ready to step out of life's rut? And live in line with your soul's mission? AA Ariel is the angel to help you to do just that. Thank her for bringing this information to you today.

Meditation and Connection

Begin by asking AA Ariel to please work with and through me. I thank you for allowing me to connect to you in this special way today.

As always, practice discernment. See if this is feeling right with you. At any time, all you need to say is STOP, and the connection will end.

1. Heart Connection: Project a golden energy cord from your heart up through your throat, third eye, and crown chakra, into the highest angelic realm with the intent of connecting to the heart of AA Ariel.
2. Send Energy: Start the flow of energy through the heart connection by sending the energy of love and gratitude up from your heart to the heart of Ariel.
3. Receive Energy: Open your heart and mind and take in the love that AA Ariel is sending to you. This Angel's love will be much stronger than the love you sent. Allow the inflowing love to build in your heart for a few minutes.
4. Continue to keep your heart open and invite AA Ariel to work with you and through you. Sitting quietly, enjoy AA Ariel's being here and the love she is pouring over you now.
