Invocation and Thanking Archangel Zadkiel

AA Zadkiel we thank you for being here with us right now. Thank you for your divine light of forgiveness and mercy surrounding us. Please help each of us to recognize where we have stored negative feelings and hurts and help us release these with your violet light of forgiveness and unconditional love.

Cleansing Meditation

We are drawing close to the unconditional love of AA Zadkiel. Picture his violet flame above your head. Notice how you feel right now. Find some places that feel so good right now. It may just be a small space or much larger. Savor that purple flame flowing into those pleasant areas. Now allow yourself to become conscious of area in your mind, body, and spirit that feel “stuck” or uncomfortable. A tightness, an ache or pain. Now feel that violet flames pulling all negative thoughts, feelings, and emotions out of your body through the crown chakra. Release all of these from your toes, moving up your legs, then up your torso and through your throat chakra up through your third eye and then out the crown chakra where AA Zadkiel's flame is absorbing them and burning them into ashes.
